WHITE ALUMINUM EXPANDS SERVICE TO SARASOTA REGION

SARASOTA, FL – White Aluminum, headquartered in Leesburg (FL) announces the acquisition of Gingerich Glass & Aluminum, a family operated business which serviced Sarasota and surrounding areas for 33 years.

“We are very excited about our continued growth. With this most recent acquisition we are bridging service gaps in the southwest region of Florida,” says William ‘Bud’ Dorman, CEO of White Aluminum. “Our company has been servicing Florida homes and businesses for 60 years, so offering the right products and strong service to our customers is how we do business.”

White Aluminum has been in business since 1955 and heralds the prestigious ‘Big50’ designation awarded by Remodeler’s Magazine, placing WA among the fifty (50) most distinguished remodeling business owners in the nation.

White Aluminum offers an array of products including high impact energy efficient replacement windows and doors, products that meet the latest building codes in coastal regions such as Sarasota, Bradenton, the Barrier Islands, Lakewood Ranch and surrounding communities.
